

PIMA AIR & SPACE MUSEUM

Summer Camp Behavior Agreement

Please read and have your child read the following rules and expectations. A signature from both participant and parent/guardian is required at the end. Print and sign the agreement and then turn it in when you check in for the first day of camp.

- Participants will follow directions of all museum staff during camp.
- Participants must stay with the group during camp. They may not explore any area of the museum on their own.
- Participants will treat each other with respect. Pima Air and Space Museum has a strict no bullying or harassment policy and will not tolerate any bullying behavior.
- Participant's cell phones will need to stay on silent and in their pocket. The only exception will be during any museum tour so they can take pictures. They may not take phones or cameras into restrooms.
- Participants will treat museum property and artifacts (including aircraft) with respect. They may not climb on any of the aircraft or touch aircraft or other artifacts that are behind a barrier. Parents/guardians will be charged for damage that occurs to museum property that is caused by your child.
- Participants will be considerate of other visitors at the museum and not yell or run while in the hangars and other buildings.

Failure to agree to or follow these rules and expectations will result in expulsion from the camp. You will be required to pick up your child early. No refunds will be issued for early removal of a student due to misbehavior.
